Update on City work at the museum

The update was received. Terry Pierce discussed that the Kirsten Moody was in communications with her to redesign and address the gardens of the museum. She does Texas native-plant landscaping. Susan Komandosky commented on how great it was for work to be happening at the museum.

Receive update on Docent Position

The Docent Position committee reported that a docent was offered a position and was in contract negotiations. The update was received.

Receive update on Garden Club assisting with Moody flowerbeds

The Garden Club is going to come clean out flower beds and weeds and thin the day lilies as the museum waits for the flower beds to be re-graded. The Garden club is more than willing to help. The report was received.

Report from the Friends of the Moody Museum (Joe Burgess)

Would need $70,000 for the statue of Dan Moody. Susan Komandosky reported that the artist was prepared. Fundraising for statues

Receive update on storm window installation

The storm windows will be installed the week of April 15th. One of the 35 windows was square. Ruby reported that the superintendent of internal services, Rick Jones, would be the point of contact for the installation as Ruby Fisher would be on her Honeymoon. Samye Turner did a fantastic job on cleaning the window treatments.

Receive update on the Louis K. Ned Fund and the Nancy Moody bequest.

The update was received.

Discuss details for Pounds of Plenty

Pounds of Plenty occurs in June. It was mentioned to have the event occur on June 22 10 am – 12 pm. Food and Money are collected for Shephard's Heart. The businesses/persons that collect the most money or food is given a trophy. November 10th would be the Salute to the Troops. Food should be non-perishable and not in glass.
