CITIZENS COMMUNICATION

No one signed up to speak.

ACTION/DISCUSSION ITEMS

1. Presentation on Charter, Charter Review Commission and Charter Review.
Legal Counsel Charlie Zech provided a presentation regarding the Charter, the role and responsibilities of the Charter Review Commission, and the charter review process. The presentation was introductory in nature and included an open discussion with Commission members. Mr. Zech responded to questions and provided additional information as requested.
2. Discuss and consider election of Chairperson and Vice-Chairperson.
A motion was made by Peter Bryan to elect John McDonald as Chair and Gary Gola as Vice Chair. The motion was seconded by Jim Buzan and approved unanimously.

Chairman McDonald assumed the role of presiding over the meeting.

3. Discuss and consider Operating Procedures.
 - Rules of Procedure: Mr. Zech provided guidance regarding Commission conduct, including a recommendation that members avoid discussing charter revisions outside of meetings and a reminder that any notes taken during meetings are subject to the Public Information Act.
 - Meeting Length: Set at two hours.
 - Public Participation: Will follow City Council practice, allowing citizen comments on non-agenda items and during specific agenda items; a sign-up sheet will be used.
 - Meeting Schedule: First and third Mondays, 6:00–8:00 p.m., at the Library. Teams will be available for remote participation.
 - Review Process and Voting: Five affirmative votes are required to approve items for City Council consideration, representing a majority of the Commission.
